Carroll County Wabash & Erie Canal, Inc.
1030 N. Washington St.
Delphi, IN 46923

Founded in 1974, Carroll County Wabash & Erie Canal, Inc. is dedicated to the preservation of the Wabash & Erie Canal in Delphi, Indiana. Wabash & Erie Canal Park is the only remaining place in Indiana where the historic Canal is publicly accessible and navigable.

We are a private non-profit organization that seeks to serve the community through preservation, education, and recreation.

We welcome thousands of visitors each year through a variety of means: a beautiful event venue, public festivals and programs, group and school tours, historic trails, RV and tent camping, Airbnb cabin rentals, and more!

Additionally, we reach many thousands more through social media platforms, our website, and a monthly email newsletter. If you want to put your business in front of people who share our values, please enroll as a corporate member for the coming year!

And don't forget the corporate membership benefits! Our reception hall is the perfect place for your next meeting or retreat. We offer an array of audio-visual options, wifi, plus an atmosphere that balances tranquility and productivity. We hope to see you soon!
